WOMEN’S DAY

Worship Planning Notes

Today we celebrate women who are wise builders. They build through their commitment to God, themselves, their families, churches, communities, and the world. Yet even the wisest builder has gone through some struggles. Hence, “The Power of Wise Women Builders” or “Wise Women Builders” or “Celebrating Women Builders” are suggested themes, and Proverbs 14:1 is the supporting Scripture: Every wise woman builds her house: but the foolish tears it down with her own hands. The goal is for women to witness to each other through music, movement, and testimony during worship and other related Women’s Day or Women’s Weekend events.

Bulletin Notes: Provide notes in the bulletin or on projection screens on the significance of specific pieces of music to the theme. Include supportive Scriptures that help connect the songs to the theme. Also include brief testimonies from individual women if possible.
Testimonies: The purpose of testimonies is twofold. First, they witness to the power of God and how God’s goodness has changed lives. Second, they push past barriers of women not talking to each other and foster mutual support in building better lives through Christ. During the Bible studies and other activities leading up to Women’s Day, solicit testimonies from individual women who can share how God’s goodness helped them deal not only with overcoming personal hardships but also with struggles in moving from simple church membership to effective Christian discipleship. It would be helpful to share as many printed testimonies as your bulletin or projection system will allow. It would also enhance the worship experience if you could select three testimonies to incorporate into the worship service at the key points indicated below.

Working with the Theme: The Scriptures and music given below are suggested to help examine how women build wisely and what biblically based building blocks they use. There are three primary phases of constructing a building and they align with the three primary phases of a worship service. You might want to align your worship components to match the three phases as suggested below. If you have selected women to share testimonies, the sequence would be scripture, testimony, and song or liturgical dance/mime.

1. Preparing the site. Although this is called different things in different churches, it equates to the time of invocation, opening, praise, or personal testimony.

   Scripture: Acts 20:32: “I commend you to God, and to the word of his grace, which is able to build you up, and to give you an inheritance among all them which are sanctified.”

   Songs:
   a) Sanctuary
   b) For Every Mountain
   c) We’ve Come This Far by Faith

2. Connecting the components or materials. This generally equates to the sermonic period. Below are three scriptures from which to select and five songs from which to select.

   Scripture: Luke 14:28: “For which of you, intending to build a tower, sitteth not down first, and counteth the cost, whether he have sufficient to finish it?”

   Scripture: Psalms 127:1a: “Except the LORD build the house, they labour in vain that build it.”

   Scripture: Isaiah 9:10a: “The bricks are fallen down, but we will build with hewn stones.”

   Songs:
   a) We Fall Down, But We Get Up
   b) There’s a Leak in This Old Building
   c) I’m Going to Another Level
   d) Brick by Brick (for liturgical dance or mime)
   e) If I Can Help Somebody
3. Releasing the newly built or renovated structure for use in the real world. This generally equates to the time of invitation, sending forth, or benediction.

Scripture: Jude 1:20-21: “But ye, beloved, building up yourselves on your most holy faith, praying in the Holy Ghost, Keep yourselves in the love of God, looking for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ unto eternal life.”

Songs:
   a) Present Faultless
   b) Encourage Yourself
   c) Through It All

1. Litany for a Wise Builder

Leader: O God, My Lord, have mercy on me; we are wise women yearning to hear from You. Our souls need healing. My soul yearns for a revival to mend my broken heart. Lift up my bowed-down head and draw me closer to you.

People: You are a Mighty God and you have promised to meet us at our point of need.

Leader: We are wise builders who build our foundations on solid ground. We prepare for the storms and listen to hear from you.

People: In our quietness you hear our cry and make provisions that we cannot see. Thank you, O God, for your blessings.

Leader: Pour into me your word so I may continue to be a wise builder all my days. Lord, you are my dwelling place and I seek after you when I enter the sanctuary.

People: Thank you, God, for your great creation and your instructions that guide us daily, helping us to be wise builders and not foolish ones who tear down our homes and our lives.

Leader: I praise you O, Lord for your mighty acts as you lead me to that sacred place to bask in your spirit and worship you.

People: Lord God, you have been my dwelling place and a very present help in time of need. Dear God, help the foolish builders become wise builders through the power of your Holy Spirit.

Leader: Lord, help the foolish builders who chose to tear down rather than build. They have been hurt by past pains, low self-esteem, and bad decisions. Let some woman be a beacon of light for them so they might see the way.
People: Lord God, restore unto us the joy of our salvation. Give us the power to throw off foolish endeavors and engage in wise undertakings.

Leader: Lord, we are wise women who build strong homes, always lifting praises to you. Our testimonies concern your love and great sacrifice.

People: Lord God, you have built me up, you have purged my sins, and you have washed and made me whole. Now make me a testimony so others will desire your love and power.

ALL: All praises to God for wise women who are good builders and are now able to help foolish women make choices that please you. AMEN.
